4 foreign visitor; and

5 WHEREAS, the Griffin Spalding School System, through the nonprofit organization Global

7 professional to Griffin, Georgia, to work with students and government; and

8 WHEREAS, Miss Su Wei from Lanzhou, China, was set to arrive in Georgia in November 9 of 2008, but the school system needed a family to serve as her hosts, providing a place to stay

11 WHEREAS, Dean and Bette Laird answered the call for help without hesitation, providing 12 a basement apartment to Miss Wei upon her arrival; and

13 WHEREAS, the Laird's daughter, Jennifer Galloway, and her husband also volunteered their 14 time and efforts to making Miss Wei's American experience one that left a lasting 15 impression; and

16 WHEREAS, between the two families' neighboring properties and the Galloway's own 17 travels to China, the families provided Miss Wei a place of comfort and togetherness during 18 her stay in Georgia; and

19 WHEREAS, during miss Wei's six-month stay with the Galloways, she was included in 20 family holidays, picnics, and many other activities which gave her a glimpse into the 21 American culture and way of life; and

22 WHEREAS, thanks to the Laird and Galloway families, Miss Wei has been embraced into 23 an American family and has seen first-hand the importance religion and family play in the 24 American lifestyle and culture; and

25 WHEREAS, during Miss Wei's time in Georgia, she touched the lives of over 8,500 children, 26 and interacted with government, civic, and private businesses in the area, expanding the 27 cultural horizons of all she encountered; and

28 WHEREAS, the Laird and Galloway families' hospitality and caring for Miss Wei allowed 29 her trip to be one of happiness and inclusion which she will share with those in her home 30 country upon her return, furthering the reputation of Georgia and the United States as 31 generous and kind.

32 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that
